

SCHOOL SONG

Smith House boys, here's a song for you,
Hunter and Hannell and Shortland too,
Sing it as our fathers sang it loud and true,
As they climbed up the hill in the morning.

Chorus:

Yes, when we're gone in the years far ahead,
When the last game's played and the last lesson's said,
The name of the school will awake from the dead,
The memories of many a morning.

Serving straight in a hard fought match,
Sprinting for the tape or a puzzling catch,
The "blues" from the limit man to the scratch,
Will still do their best, night and morning.

Chorus:

Yes, when we've gone . . . etc.

Remis Velisque's the motto for all
And our hearts once again will still hear its call,
When the muscles are stiff that once toed the ball,
Or climbed up the hill in the morning.

Chorus:

Yes, when we've gone . . . etc.
