

en
fe'

of rubbish,
said.
the 2/24th
civilians
came to

ver now
Macfar-

to feel
because
war.'
d see-
diffi-
life.
I felt
' he

our
AIF
he

Harry Silcock
started at NBHS
in 1930.

... of the time. ... ated in late 1943. ... all POWs in the event of a mainland invasion.

Airmen: The crew of a Beaufort A9-500, from left Flight Lieutenant Harry Reginald Silcock, of Newcastle, (pilot) Flying Officer Al Edward Sage, of Randwick (navigator) Flying Officer Joh Wall Baxter, of Sydney (wireless operator), Pilot Officer Joseph Henry Siddall, of Sydney (air gunner).